

Bank Iowa Spirit of Chandy Scholarship

The Bank Iowa Spirit of Chandy Scholarship is a program created by Bank Iowa to honor Chandy Barr Clanton, our former Vice Chair, and to show our commitment to our communities and area youth.

Eligibility

Applicants for the Bank Iowa Spirit of Chandy Scholarship must be high school seniors who plan to enroll in a full-time undergraduate course of study at an accredited four year college or university, or a two-year junior or community college in the fall following graduation. This scholarship program is available to Bank Iowa customers and non-customers. Preference will be given to students who participate in the activities Chandy loved: swimming in particular, as well as biking, running and flying.

Awards

Bank Iowa will award a $500 scholarship to a deserving high school senior boy and a senior girl in each of its seven regions, for a total of 14 scholarships granted annually.

Application

Interested students must complete an application to be considered. Applicants are responsible for gathering and submitting all necessary information as outlined on the application form and will be evaluated on the information provided. Applications must be completed and postmarked no later than March 5, 2018.

Selection of Recipients

Scholarship recipients will be selected on the basis of academics, character, leadership, honors/awards received and participation in school and community activities, as well as involvement in the activities Chandy was passionate about (swimming, biking, running and flying). Students are also asked to complete an essay describing their personal strengths, educational and career goals, as well as submitting at least one letter of recommendation from a non-relative. Financial need is not considered. All applicants agree to accept the decision of Bank Iowa as final, and all scholarship recipients agree to having their name and photo used for promotional purposes.
